STAT

STAT

STAT

A make week Co.	Release 2006/10/17 :		*D0001001E0011 6
Annroved For	1 Release 7006/10/17	A-RDPD4BUU.340	かだいいい しいしょういしょ ニーヒ
A LO DI O V O GI I O I	1 100000 2000, 10, 17 .		#1 (000 100 1000 1 1 0

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL.

Wednesday - 15 August 1962

Armed Services Committee staff, about our legislation and question of clearance with Post Office and Civil Service and House Foreign Affairs Committees. It was his view that before introduction this should be cleared away with the two Committees. Further, he offer his view that after discussion with william Darden of Senate Armed Services staff there appeared to be little likelihood that the bill coulter the Congress. However, he saw the value in actual introductift was further determined, however, that neither Smart nor Darden had discussed the bill or tactics with either Vinson or Russell. 2. While attempting to make arrangements for a convenient time to meet with the Speaker. Mr. McCormack came on the telephone asking if I was sure Mr. McCone wanted to see him. I pointed out that Mr. McCone for sometime had wanted to sit down with the Speaker and discuss the Agency generally and now we did have a small piece of legislation also. Mr McCormack wanted to be sure he was not imposing on the busy scherof Mr. McCone. The meeting was set for 10:30 temorrow morning. 3. Discussed with Boyd Crawford Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman. Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman adde not only would be strengly support our bill but he would certainly vet for it.	i.	Talked with Bob Smart, House
Affairs Committees. It was his view that before introduction this should be cleared away with the two Committees. Further, he offer his view that after discussion with William Darden of Senate Armed Services staff there appeared to be little likelihood that the hill coul clear the Congress. However, he saw the value in actual introductif it was further determined, however, that neither Smart nor Darden had discussed the bill or tactics with either Vinson or Russell. 2. While attempting to make arrangements for a convenient time to meet with the Speaker, Mr. McCome wanted to see him. I pointed out that Mr. McCome for some time had wanted to sit down with the Speaker and discuss the Agency generally and now we did have a small piece of legislation also. Mr McCormack wanted to be sure he was not imposing on the busy scheo of Mr. McCone. The meeting was set for 10:30 temerrow morning. 3. Discussed with Boyd Crawford legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman. Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman adde not only would he strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. 4. Talked with Gaerge Moore on the staff of Heuse Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	Armed Service of clearance w	s Committee staff, about our legislation and question his view that after discussion with William Darden of Senate Armed Services staff there appeared to be little likelihood that the bill ceul clear the Congress. However, he saw the value in actual introduction in the Congress. However, that neither Smart nor Darden had discussed the bill or tactics with either Vinson or Russell. 2. While attempting to make arrangements for a convenient time to meet with the Speaker. Mr. McCormack came on the telephone asking if I was sure Mr. McCone wanted to see him. I pointed out that Mr. McCone for some time had wanted to sit down with the Speaker and discuss the Agency generally and now we did have a small piece of legislation also. Mr McCormack wanted to be sure he was not imposing on the busy scher of Mr. McCone. The meeting was set for 10:30 temerrow morning. 3. Discussed with Boyd Crawford legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Grawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman adde not only would he strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. 4. Talked with George Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an assendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	Affairs Commi	itees. It was his view that before introduction this Services staff there appeared to be little likelihood that the bill ceulciear the Congress. However, he saw the value in actual introduction in the Chairman determined, however, that neither Smart nor Darden had discussed the bill or factics with either Vinsom or Russell. 2. While attempting to make arrangements for a convenient time to meet with the Speaker, Mr. McCormack came on the teisphone asking if I was sure Mr. McCorm wanted to see him. I pointed out that Mr. McCorm for some time had wanted to sit down with the Speaker and discuss the Agency generally and now we did have a small piece of legislation also. Mr McCormack wanted to be sure he was not imposing on the busy scheoof Mr. McCorne. The meeting was set for 10:30 temorrow morning. 3. Discussed with Boyd Crawford Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addenot only would be strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. 4. Talked with Goorge Moore on the staff of House Fost Office and Civil Service Committee, concorning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	his view that a	led away with the two Committees. Further, he offer flav discussion with William Tandes of Sancta America clear the Congress. However, he saw the value in actual introduction in the congress. However, that neither Smart nor Darden had discussed the bill or factics with either Vinson or Russell. 2. While attempting to make arrangements for a convenient time to meet with the Speaker, Mr. McCormack came on the telephone asking if I was sure Mr. McCone wanted to see him. I pointed out that Mr. McCone for some time had wanted to sit down with the Speaker and discuss the Agency generally and now we did have a small piece of legislation also. Mr McCormack wanted to be sure he was not imposing on the busy ache of Mr. McCone. The meeting was set for 10:30 temorrow morning. 3. Discussed with Boyd Crawford Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Grawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addence only would be strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. 4. Talked with Goorge Moore on the staff of House Fost Office and Civil Service Committee, concorning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an assendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	Services staff	there appeared to be little likelihood that the bill could
And discussed the bill or tactics with either Vinsom or Russell. 2. While attempting to make arrangements for a convenient time to meet with the Speaker, Mr. McCormack came on the telephone asking if I was sure Mr. McCone wanted to see him. I pointed out that Mr. McCone for some time had wanted to sit down with the Speaker and discuss the Agency generally and now we did have a small piece of legislation also. Mr McCormack wanted to be sure he was not imposing on the busy sched of Mr. McCone. The meeting was set for 10:30 tomorrow morning. 3. Discussed with Boyd Crawford Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman adde not only would be strongly support our bill but he would certainly vet for it. 4. Talked with George Moore on the staff of House Fost Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	clear the Cong	ross. However, he saw the value in actual introduction
While attempting to make arrangements for a convenient time to meet with the Speaker, Mr. McGormack came on the telephone asking if I was sure Mr. McGone wanted to see him. I pointed out that Mr. McGone for some time had wanted to sit down with the Speaker and discuss the Agency generally and now we did have a small piece of legislation also. Mr McGormack wanted to be sure he was not imposing on the busy scheof Mr. McGone. The meeting was set for 10:30 tomorrow morning. 3. Discussed with Boyd Crawford Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addense early would he strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. 4. Talked with Goorge Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concorning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	had discussed t	determined, however, that neither Smart nor Darden.
arrangements for a convenient time to meet with the Speaker, Mr. McCormack came on the telephone asking if I was sure Mr. McCone wanted to see him. I peinted out that Mr. McCone for some time had wanted to sit down with the Speaker and discuss the Agency generally and now we did have a small piece of legislation also. Mr McCormack wanted to be sure he was not imposing on the busy sche of Mr. McCone. The meeting was set for 10:30 temorrow morning. 3. Discussed with Boyd Crawford Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman adds not only would he strongly support our bill but he would certainly voi for it. 4. Talked with Guarge Moore on th staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concorning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the CIA Agt under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo		man an orange arms arms a transfi &1 Vensent's
Mr. McCormack came on the telephone asking if I was sure Mr. McCone wanted to see him. I pointed out that Mr. McCone for some time had wanted to sit down with the Speaker and discuss the Agency generally and now we did have a small piece of legislation also. Mr McCormack wanted to be sure he was not imposing on the busy scheoof Mr. McCone. The meeting was set for 10:30 temerrow morning. 3. Discussed with Boyd Crawford Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addenot only would he strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. Talked with Goorge Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	· I
McGene wanted to see him. I pointed out that Mr. McCone for some time had wanted to sit down with the Speaker and discuss the Agency generally and now we did have a small piece of legislation also. Mr McCormack wanted to be sure he was not imposing on the busy scher of Mr. McCone. The meeting was set for 10:30 temerrew morning. 3. Discussed with Boyd Crawford Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addense early would be strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. 4. Talked with George Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	Arrangements !	or a convenient time to meet with the Speaker, generally and now we did have a small piece of legislation also. Mr McCormack wanted to be sure he was not imposing on the busy scherof Mr. McCome. The meeting was set for 10:30 temerrow morning. 3. Discussed with Boyd Crawford Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addenst early would be strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. 4. Talked with George Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	McCone wasted	in came on the telephone asking it I was sure Mr.
generally and now we did have a small piece of legislation also. Mr McCormack wanted to be sure he was not imposing on the busy sched of Mr. McCone. The meeting was set for 10:30 temorrow morning. 3. Discussed with Boyd Crawford Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addenset early would he strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. 4. Talked with Goorge Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	time had wante	d to sit down with the Speaker and discuss the Agency
McCormack wented to be sure he was not imposing on the busy schee of Mr. McCone. The meeting was set for 10:30 temorrow morning. 3. Discussed with Boyd Crawford Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Grawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addense early would he strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. Talked with Goorge Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concorning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	generally and n	low we did have a small piece of legislation also. Mr.
Jisenssed with Boyd Crawford Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addense early would be strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. 4. Talked with Goorge Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concorning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amondment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	McCormack wa	inted to be sure he was not imposing on the busy aches
Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addense only would be strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. 4. Talked with Guarge Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an ammendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	of Mr. McCone	. The meeting was set for 10:30 temorrow morning.
Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addense only would be strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. 4. Talked with Guarge Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an ammendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	3 .	26. S legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any jurisdictional preblems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman. Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addense early would he strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. 4. Talked with Guarge Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amondment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman. Dr. Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addenot only would be strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. Talked with Guerge Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amondment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo		House Foreign Affairs Committee our expensed and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addense early would be strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. Talked with Guarge Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amondment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	Staff Director,	House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman adde not only would be strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. Talked with Guarge Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amondment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	Staff Director, legislation, giv jurisdictional p	House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed ing him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any rebiems and asking his advice about talking to the
there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman addense early would be strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. Talked with Guarge Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concorning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amondment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	Staff Director, legislation, giv jurisdictional p Chairman, Dr.	House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed ing him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any rebiems and asking his advice about talking to the Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem not only would be strongly support our bill but he would certainly vot for it. Talked with Guarge Moore on the staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amondment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	Staff Director, legislation, giv jurisdictional p Chairman, Dr. and suggested t	House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed ing him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any robioms and asking his advice about talking to the Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem but he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently.
4. Talked with Guarge Moore on th staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concorning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	Staff Director, legislation, giv jurisdictional p Chairman, Dr. and suggested t Crawford advis	House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed ing him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any rebiems and asking his advice about talking to the Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem but he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, sed he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly
staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	Staff Director, legislation, giv jurisdictional p Chairman, Dr. and suggested to Crawford adviathere certainly not ealy would!	House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed ing him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any rebiems and asking his advice about talking to the Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem hat he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, ed he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman added
staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	Staff Director, legislation, giv jurisdictional p Chairman, Dr. and suggested to Crawford adviathere certainly not ealy would!	House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed ing him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any rebiems and asking his advice about talking to the Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem hat he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, ed he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman adde
our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	Staff Director, legislation, giv jurisdictional p Chairman, Dr. and suggested to Crawford adviathere certainly not ealy would!	House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed ing him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any rebiems and asking his advice about talking to the Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem hat he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, ed he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman added a strongly support our bill but he would certainly voted.
amendment to the CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Mo	Staff Director, legislation, giv jurisdictional p Chairman, Dr. and suggested to Crawford adviathere certainly not ealy would if for it.	House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed ing him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any rebiems and asking his advice about talking to the Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem hat he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, ed he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman added a strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the support of the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote that the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote the strongly support our bill but he would certainly s
	Staff Director, legislation, giv jurisdictional p Chairman, Dr. and suggested to Crawford adviathere certainly not only would lear it.	House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed ing him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any rebiems and asking his advice about talking to the Mergan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem but he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, ed he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman added he strongly support our bill but he would certainly veto strongly support our bill but he would certainly veto. Talked with Goorge Moore on the Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concorning
	Staff Director, legislation, giv jurisdictional p Chairman, Dr. and suggested to Crawford adviathere certainly not ealy would if for it.	House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposed ing him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any rebiems and asking his advice about talking to the Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem hat he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, ed he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman added to strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote to strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote meat Office and Civil Service Committee, concorning smeat legislation. In view of the fact that it was an
·	Staff Director, iegislation, giv juriedictional p Chairman, Dr. and suggested to Crawford adviathere certainly not only would if for it. staff of House is our early retire amendment to to	House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposeding him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any rebiems and asking his advice about talking to the Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem hat he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, ed he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman added to strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote meant legislation. In view of the fact that it was an he CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, More
	Staff Director, iegislation, giv jurisdictional p Chairman, Dr. and suggested to Crawford adviathere certainly not only would left it. staff of House I our early retire amendment to to	House Foreign Affairs Committee, our proposeding him a brief run-down asking if he foresaw any rebiems and asking his advice about talking to the Morgan. Crawford indicated he saw no real problem hat he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, ed he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman added to strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote the strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote meant legislation. In view of the fact that it was an he CIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, More

STAT

STAT

STAT